

PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT UPDATE

August 2023

This month is off to a good start with Heritage Day on August 7th. However, you can continue to recognize our heritage by participating in an upcoming engagement about Anzac's historic church site and its deep roots in the community. Starting on August 21st, residents are invited to share feedback on three conceptual designs for the Anzac Church Memorial.

Later in the month, you could stop by Ptarmigan Court for one of two Neighbourhood Engagement Series events. We'll be talking about Land Use Bylaw changes with respect to Ptarmigan Court. Or you can ask about other topics that are of interest to you about your neighbourhood.

Don't forget to subscribe to Participate Wood Buffalo \(rmwb.ca/participate\), our online public engagement platform. Stay in the loop about all the opportunities to share feedback about municipal projects. There will be plenty of opportunities for you to participate in shaping our region.

Construction Season

It's construction season and sometimes roads and sidewalks need to be closed. But don't let that stop you from supporting local businesses. If you see construction in a commercial area, remember that businesses are still open.

Watch for any posted signage to help guide you to open businesses in construction zones. Visit rmwb.ca/construction to see where work is happening in the community.
